ARTICLE II

Union Security

a. Within thirty (30) calendar days of initial hire of any employee covered by this Agreement, Employer shall notify IATSE of the name, address, date of hire, classification, dates of employment and gross wages earned by each employee on an ongoing basis. Any employee who is engaged by the Employer within the above-described bargaining unit for a cumulative (may be non-consecutive) total of thirty (30) actual work days within any two (2) consecutive calendar years is required, as a condition of continued employment, to meet the financial obligations of Union membership, such amount of dues and initiation fees normally required by that local. Any employee who fails to comply with the above obligations within two weeks after having received an appropriate written notice of delinquency from the Union (with copy to the Employer) shall be deemed ineligible for future engagements by the Employer. Written notice of such ineligibility shall be given by the Union to the Employer, with a copy to the employee.

b. The Employer agrees that it will deduct Union dues payments from all taxable gross wages earned by employees covered by this Agreement. The Union shall notify the Employer of the amount to be withheld from the employee's wages, and will maintain a signed dues deduction authorization form for each employee. The Union will provide such authorizations to the Employer effective with the start date of this Agreement or as they are executed in the first year of this Agreement, and thereafter on an annual basis. The dues deduction authorization must be received by the Employer one calendar week prior to the end of the pay period for which dues are withheld from an employee's wages. The Union will also submit to the Employer, on an ongoing basis, a list of all employees who have chosen to withdraw their authorization of said check-off forms. Employer reserves the right to cease the deduction of Union dues from any employee from whom it receives a signed form withdrawing his or her authorization for same so long as Employer notifies the Union business representative that it has received such notice.

c. The foregoing obligations are to be interpreted and applied consistent with applicable law. The IATSE shall indemnify and hold Employer harmless against any claims or liability arising from Employer's compliance with any IATSE request to terminate an employee pursuant to Section a. and any deduction/withholding/transference of dues in Section b. of this Article.

ARTICLE III

No Sub-Contracting

- a. Employer shall not subcontract with third parties for the performance of work within the scope of this Agreement unless the Employer determines that insufficient qualified freelancers are available in the market and/or special skills or equipment is needed and cannot be supplied by the Union. Employer reserves the right to contract with another business entity / individual only insofar as there exists a valid collective bargaining agreement between that entity/individual and the IATSE, applicable to the work by such business entity / individual.
  1. Before subcontracting, the Employer shall give notice to the Union of such necessity and shall provide an opportunity to discuss any subcontracting situation before implementation, unless the Employer's needs are immediate for an upcoming event.
  2. The Employer shall inform the Union of subcontracting needs at least thirty (30) days before implementation or as soon as practicable if crew changes requiring subcontracting are to be made with less than thirty (30) days' notice. In all cases the Employer shall inform the Union of any subcontracting in a timely fashion.

b. The requirements of this Article (III) are not applicable to subcontracting caused by equipment limitations.

ARTICLE IV

Management Rights

a. The Union recognizes the Employer's inherent and traditional right to manage its business, to hire and to direct the work force and to establish and modify the terms and conditions of the employees' employment, except as such right is expressly limited by specific provisions of this Agreement. The exercise of these management rights is vested exclusively with the Employer. The Employer's failure to exercise any function or right in a particular way, shall not be deemed a waiver of its right to exercise such function or right or preclude the Employer from exercising the same right in some other way. All matters not specifically and expressly controlled by language of this Agreement may be administered for its duration by the Employer in accordance with such policy or procedure as the Employer from time to time may determine.

b. Specifically, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer has the sole exclusive right to:

- hire, suspend, transfer, promote, demote, and discipline employees and to maintain and improve their discipline, efficiency, and quality of work;
- lay off, terminate or otherwise relieve employees from duty;
- determine the size and composition of the workforce and to eliminate, change, or consolidate jobs;
- install new jobs;
- direct the method and process of doing work and to introduce new and improved work methods or equipment;
- make, modify, revoke, and enforce such work rules and regulations that in the Employer's opinion may be necessary or reasonable for the proper, safe and efficient conduct of the Employer's business, provided such rules and regulations and their enforcement, shall not violate any express rights of this Agreement. Copies of all such rules and regulations, additions, amendments, or revocations shall be given to the Union;
- determine the location where work is to be performed;
- determine the starting and quitting times, the time for lunch and rest breaks, and the number of hours to be worked; and
- demand such other work requirements, so long as they do not violate the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

Hiring and Hiring Practices

a. The Referral List: The Union will maintain and provide the Employer a Referral List of qualified individuals as well as the positions for which each is qualified. Inclusion of an individual on the Referral List constitutes a representation by the Union that it has examined the experience and qualifications of that individual and has determined that the person is qualified to perform the jobs indicated. The Union will accept to the Referral List all qualified employees of the Employer without discrimination of any kind and regardless of Union membership; however any individual who fails to meet the financial obligation of membership in the appropriate local, per Article II.a. of this Agreement, shall not be eligible for the Referral List..

b. Preference of Employment: To the extent that the Employer is in need of qualified persons to perform work covered by this Agreement, it will give preference of employment, provided qualifications as determined by the Employer are acceptable, to employees currently referred for work by the Union (via the Referral List) so long as a qualified person is available. The Union agrees that the Employer is not obligated to recognize seniority when hiring from the Referral List; however, in assigning employees for work, Employer shall apply, in no particular order and with no specific weight, the following criteria:

- The historical assignment of the particular position;
- The request of the client;
- Any prospective employee's relative length of employment within the local market;
- Any prospective employee's past and current availability;
- Any prospective employee's skill, knowledge, and ability;
- Any prospective employee's prior performance, work record, and adherence to Employer standards and expectations; and
- Employer's obligation(s) under any other trade union agreement.

c. The Union agrees that it is and will continue to be an open Union and that it will keep its membership rolls open and will offer membership to all eligible employees engaged by the Employer. The Union agrees not to impose any fees in excess of the maximum fees required of members of the Union upon eligible employees of the Employer who wish to join the Union or wish to be represented by the Union.

d. Irregularities and Exceptions:

1. The Employer may hire any person for one (1) workday outside of the Referral List, but such person must be referred to the Union for evaluation to be included on the Referral List if their performance was deemed acceptable by the Employer.
  - i. Employer shall be limited to an aggregate total of ten (10) days of non-Referral List of hire per year.
  - ii. Employees from other jurisdiction(s) hired and traveled by Employer to the jurisdiction covered by this Agreement shall not count towards the aggregate ten (10) days of non-Referral List hire, immediately above.
2. Employer provided experienced personnel shall staff all positions that are requested/required by its client(s) unless training arrangements are made in advance, consistent with Article XIX.b., of this Agreement, below.
3. If Employer has engaged and confirmed dates of work for an individual who subsequently becomes ineligible for Referral, per Article II.a. of this Agreement, all actual work dates for such individual beyond the end of the next complete pay period after Employer receives written notice of his/her ineligibility shall count towards the aggregate ten (10) days of non-referral hire permitted per year.

e. The Hire List: The Employer shall maintain its own Hire List(s) based on fair and equitable criteria applied uniformly to each person on the Referral List. The Union recognizes and understands Employer may make hiring decisions based as well on client feedback/request(s), as well as Employer's own business/crewing decisions, and Employer agrees to convey to the local's Business Representative the nature of such feedback/request(s) or other information impacting an individual's future hireability. If the Hire List is exhausted, Employer will give preference to other technicians on the Referral List before hiring non-referred employees for crafts covered by this Agreement. The Employer and the Union agree that qualified, experienced personnel, as determined by the Employer, shall staff all positions unless training arrangements have been made in advance.

f. Employee Cancellations: If an employee has been offered an event to work and the employee confirms such assignment, the employee may not cancel unless a replacement satisfactory to the Employer has been found. The Employer shall assist the employee by providing names and phone numbers of other workers that would be acceptable replacements, but it is the responsibility of the employee to find the replacement. Criteria for such "satisfactory replacement" shall consist of an individual:

1. being on referral list in the specific craft;
2. having previously worked for the client in that position without issue; and
3. confirmation that the replacement employee is available and willing to work.

Employee will not accept bookings with Employer if the employee has or is aware of a prior scheduling conflict.

Employee will give notice of replacement to Employer at the earliest reasonable opportunity. If Employer deems the identified replacement to be unsatisfactory, Employer must respond to the employee within forty-eight (48) hours of such notice, or, where notice of replacement is received after Employer's business hours, Employer shall have until the end of the second business day to respond. On timely response by Employer,

- the original employee will be responsible for the committed event and may continue to seek a suitable replacement or resolve himself/herself to work the committed event; or
- Employer may release original employee from the booking and hire from outside the referral list, in which case such non-referral hire will not count as one of Employers referral list exceptions detailed in Section h. of this Article, below.

If Employer does not respond to employee within forty-eight (48) hours or the end of the second business day, the identified replacement is considered to be suitable and employee is released. If the Employer agrees to accept responsibility for a substitution, no further action is needed on behalf of the employee.

This Section (Article V(f)) shall not apply to cancellations due to medical or other emergencies. The Union agrees that if an employee cancels for medical reason or other emergency, and if circumstances require that Employer replace employee from outside the Referral List, such non-referral hire will not serve as one of Employer's Referral List exceptions detailed Section d. of this Article.

g. The parties shall meet at least annually to discuss any crewing concerns that may arise. A designated representative of the IATSE and a Company representative responsible for crewing, along with other Employer representatives as may be deemed necessary shall be at this meeting which may be in-person or by telephone/ videoconference (noting that any meeting held under the Agreement can also be held via videoconference. If crewing concerns arise between quarterly meetings, either side may call a meeting by sending the other written notice. Within ten days of such notice a meeting must be scheduled to take place.

ARTICLE VI

Discipline and Discharge

a. The Employer maintains the right to make and modify reasonable work and conduct and require their observance. Employees may be disciplined up to and including suspension of duties and/or termination.

b. Whenever disciplinary action is taken, the Employer agrees to issue a “Notice of Termination” or a “Notice of Discipline” letter to the Union and affected Employee. The Union agrees that the issuance of “Notice of Termination” and/or “Notice of Discipline” letter is a management decision; however, no employee shall be disciplined or discharged without just cause. Before issuance of either letter referred to above, management will offer the employee the right to schedule a meeting. The employee may bring a Union Representative to such meeting which may be in-person or by telephone.

c. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article (VI), Employer may, at its sole but reasonable discretion, in certain exigent circumstance, terminate an employee and have him/her removed from the workplace immediately if Employer believes the employee’s continued presence at the worksite will have a significant detrimental impact on the work product, workplace safety or the safety of third parties, including but not limited to clients, event attendees, and other crew members. Employer will make every reasonable effort to give notice to Union of such circumstance either contemporaneous with or immediately following its decision.

ARTICLE VII

No Discrimination

The Employer and the IATSE agree that in applying the terms of this Agreement there will be no unlawful discrimination based upon race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, or other statutorily protected status. The Arbitration provisions of this Agreement shall not apply to this Section if an employee has recourse via State or Federal agencies of competent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE VIII

No Strike, No Lock Out

During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strikes or picketing by the Union or lockout of employees by the Employer. It shall be understood by and between both parties to this Agreement that a lawful IATSE picket line, sanctioned by the International President, shall not constitute cause for discipline as defined by this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

Stewards

The Union may appoint one steward for each production. No steward shall be subject to penalty, discipline, layoff, or discharge for any act in the performance of his/her duties as steward and acting by the authority of the Union, provided he/she continues to perform his/her job responsibilities.

ARTICLE X

Access

Representatives of the Union shall be permitted reasonable access to all sites where persons covered by this Agreement are performing services. The Employer is not responsible for restricted admittance or credentialing policies, but will use reasonable efforts to assist Union representatives with access difficulties.

ARTICLE XI

Grievance and Arbitration

a. In the event that the IATSE or an employee covered by this Agreement contends that the Employer has violated a provision of this Agreement or the Employer contends that the IATSE or an employee has violated a provision of this Agreement, the following procedures shall be applicable:

1. Within twenty (20) business days of the time a party alleging a grievance knew (or reasonably should have known) of the event(s) giving rise to the grievance, such party must give written notice of such event(s) to the other party, but in no case more than three (3) months after the event(s) which gave rise to the alleged grievance occurred. To the extent grievances related to the timely and proper payments under the health and welfare plan may be grieved, this provision shall have no application assuming such grievances are not barred or preempted by the governing plan or federal law. The failure to submit a complaint within the time periods specified shall constitute a bar to further action thereon. The written grievance shall include the specific sections of the Agreement which are alleged to have been violated, the date(s) or approximate date(s) of the alleged violation(s), the facts on which the grievance is based, the name of the individuals aggrieved (if applicable), and the remedy sought.
2. A representative of the IATSE and a designated representative of the Employer shall, within ten (10) business days after service of written notice of the claim, meet and discuss the matter and attempt to effect a settlement of said controversy or dispute. Any agreement reached at this stage shall be reduced to writing and shall be final and binding on all parties.
3. In the event that such controversy or dispute is not settled by the Employer and the IATSE within twenty (20) business days after the written notice given pursuant to paragraph (1) above, or within ten business days after the meeting referred to in paragraph (2) above, then such controversy or dispute resolution may be submitted to arbitration. The demand for arbitration must be made in writing, no later than forty (40) business days after written notice referred to in paragraph (1) above. Each party shall bear half the cost of the arbitrator's fees and expenses.

4. The parties will attempt to establish a mutually agreeable panel of permanent arbitrator(s) for the duration of this Agreement. If the parties are unable to agree upon such arbitrator(s), the arbitrator shall be selected from a lot obtained from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) or American Arbitration Association (AAA), by alternate striking of names, with the Union going first.

- i. If the dispute requires a tripartite (three involved parties) or multi-party (more than three involved parties) arbitration (collectively "Multiple Party Arbitration"), as more fully discussed in Section (e) of this Article, below, the labor rules of the applicable mediation or arbitration service shall govern, except that the arbitration shall be held within sixty (60) days of the request to arbitrate.

- b. The Arbitrator shall have no power to modify, add to, or subtract from the terms of this Agreement, but shall only determine whether the Agreement has been violated in the manner alleged in the grievance, and, if so, what the remedy should be within the meaning of the Agreement.

- c. The Arbitrator may use past practices or understandings in interpreting, applying, or expressing terms of this Agreement, only insofar as such interpretation or application is not in conflict with any express terms, herein.

- d. The decision of the Arbitrator, within the limits indicated above, shall be final and binding upon the grievant and all parties.

- e. All time limits are subject to extension, but only by mutual written agreement.

- f. The grievance and arbitration procedure is to be the sole and exclusive remedy for any alleged breach of this Agreement or any other grievable dispute relating to the employment by the Employer of employees covered by this Agreement and the parties agree that any Arbitrator shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII

Minimum Conditions

- a. Wages: The minimum wage rates, and wage increases, shall be as outlined in "Appendix A."

- b. Work Day: A regular work day shall be computed by totaling the number of hours between an employee's report to work time (hereinafter "call time") and the time the employee is dismissed by the management representative on site at the end of such work day, including meal periods. Employer shall provide employee forty-eight (48) hours' notice of his/her call time, or as much notice as is reasonably possible.

- c. 10 Hour Minimum Call: All employees shall be guaranteed at least ten (10) hours of pay.

- d. Work Week: The workweek shall be Monday through Sunday. The workweek and ending days may be amended from time to time at Employer's discretion, as necessary to meet any changes in Employer's payroll systems. The Union will be notified as soon as is practicable in advance of such change.

e. Overtime:

1. An employee's ten (10) hour minimum call will consist of nine (9) hours at the straight time rate (which is inclusive of a one (1) hour paid meal period that is not considered to be time worked), set forth in Appendix A of this Agreement, and one (1) hour at one and one-half (1.5) times his/her straight time rate. For any actual hours or fractions thereof worked in excess of ten (10) hours up to and through the thirteenth (13th) elapsed hour in any one (1) work day (including meal period) and/or any actual hours worked in excess of forty (40) straight time hours in any one (1) work week, employees shall be compensated at one and one half (1 ½) times the straight time rate (hereinafter the "Overtime Rate").
2. An employee shall receive two (2) times his/her straight time (hereinafter the "Double-time Rate") for all actual hours or fractions thereof worked in excess of thirteen (13) elapsed hours on any work day.

f. Pyramiding: It is specifically understood that there shall be no pyramiding of over-time pay made under any of the provision of this Agreement.

g. Double Header / Multiple Events:

1. An Employee assigned to a Double-Header (two or more games in one day) shall be paid time-and-one half (1.5x) for all hours worked regardless of the total number of hours worked.

h. Meal Periods:

1. All meal periods shall be compensated and will be one (1) hour in length. The meal period shall occur no sooner than the beginning of the third (3rd) hour and no later than the beginning of the Fifth (5th) hour from the employee's commencement of work. A second meal period shall commence no later than the beginning of the Fifth(5th) hour after conclusion of the previous meal period. If at the time a meal period would be necessary, the crew is engaged in wrap of the show or within thirty (30) minutes of being dismissed for the day, the applicable meal period shall be waived and employees shall receive an additional one-half (.5) hour at their prevailing wage.
2. In an employee misses or incurs a substantially delayed first meal break due to work, he/she will be compensated an additional hour at their Overtime Rate. If an employee misses or incurs a substantially delayed second or subsequent meal break, in addition to premium pay, he/she will be compensated an additional one hour at their Double-time rate. In either such case, the additional hour shall not be considered actual work for the purpose(s) of triggering/calculating overtime pay detailed in Section XII.e.1., above. "Substantially" here shall mean a delay of one-half (.5) hour or more; however, frequent or consistent delays of less than thirty (30) minutes will be reviewed via impromptu labor-management meetings and may thereafter be subject to the penalty compensation detailed in this subsection (XII.h.2.).

3. In the event the company elects to cater meals on site, such will be nutritionally balanced hot meals appropriate to the time of day. The Employer will make arrangements for food to be served in a comfortable space that is out of the weather.
4. In the event that the company does not elect to cater meals on site, where restaurant facilities are remote, crew members will be given an extended meal period for extra travel time reasonably incurred.

i. Rest Periods:

1. All technicians shall be granted at least two ten (10) minute breaks, one of which shall be within thirty (30) minutes of the start of the event and the other shall be after the event, in addition to a meal break during a ten-hour event. The Employer will not unreasonably deny a relief break when necessary.
2. Employees shall be given eight (8) continuous hours off between the time of dismissal and reporting for the next day's work. This rule shall apply to employees traveling from one assignment to another, unless early travel is at the employee's request and later arrangements are available. If less than eight (8) hours in between calls are given, the employee and the Employer shall provide one of the following remedies:
  - A premium of one and one half (1 ½) times the employee's rate shall be paid for hours invading the eight (8) hour rest break; or
  - Provide an adjusted call time. The adjusted call time will also count as the employee's "in time" for the day.
3. Employees that must travel after working hours shall be given adequate time and appropriate facilities to clean up before traveling whenever practical to do so.
4. Outdoor Events: Additional rest periods and/or relief personnel will be discussed and agreed upon, whenever practicable, in advance of crewing any outdoor event where extreme temperatures (heat or cold) and/or exposure to other severe weather elements (e.g. high winds, persistent and/or driving rain, etc.) are likely. In the absence of any specific agreement by the parties on staffing and/or relief breaks in such conditions, the parties will consult and abide by the relevant OSHA guidelines for same.

j. Cancelled Calls:

1. If the Employer cancels an assignment of a previously booked employee, the employee shall be compensated eight (8) straight-time hours' pay for less than forty-eight (48) hours' notice, and a full minimum day rate for less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice. If the Employer offers (or finds a third party to offer) the employee another job during that same time period, no additional fee shall be due as long as the job compensation and circumstances relating to that job are equal to the cancelled call. Any payment received under this subsection (XII.j.1.) shall not be considered actual work for the purposes of calculating/triggering overtime in Section XII.e., above.
2. In such case(s) where cancellations are due to a sports team being eliminated during playoffs, unless it is shown that Employer was regardless paid under contract or other agreement, there shall be no compensation due to employee(s) whose assignment(s) are so cancelled.
3. If an employee is restricted from working in a venue
  - i. due to a determination made by the management/representatives of that venue;
  - ii. upon written proof of same; and

iii. Employer hires that employee without knowledge of the restriction and is subsequently required to cancel and replace that employee; then
There shall be no penalty for the cancellation and, if circumstances require that Employer replace that employee from outside the Referral List, such a non-referral hire will not serve as one of Employer's Referral List exceptions detailed in Section d. of Article V.

k. Parking: Employees' actual parking costs, up to thirty dollars ($30.00) will be reimbursed by Employer. Employer may pre-pay or pre-arrange parking at secure lots within reasonable distance from the venue. Employees shall provide notice to Employer of parking and all other reimbursable expenses within twenty-four (24) hours after the expense is incurred and original receipt or other documentation must thereafter be provided to Employer within fourteen (14) days. The parking reimbursement under this Section k. does not apply to events held at U.S. Cellular Field or United Center; however, if employee parking costs at U.S. Cellular Field or United Center substantially increase, the parties agree this Section k. shall become applicable thereto.
